

stand, rescued from an old movie set, can outshine Lori Levine. The 1930s vanity that holds the star event planner's extensive perfume collection is one of her favorite pieces. Levine wears a pink silk dress by Diane von Furstenberg, shoes by Gaetano Ferrone for Tè Casan, necklace and earrings by Erickson Beaman, and a pavé diamond ring by Jewelry by Pipalina.

THIS PAGE: The white-rubbed maple bar in the main living space was custom-ordered from Substance Design, and an elephant tusk from interior designer and friend Antony Todd sits atop it. There's also a signed Warhol of two angels, a work depicting a melon vendor that was acquired in Jamaica, and an example of graffiti art.
